Dear Eric and Ron:

Dr.Douglas B.Ball,the President of NASCA,has advanced me $20,000 and a promise of perhaps $10,000 or more if I need it, until they put my collection in their auction,probably in April,1981.

It really does bother me that I was unable to comply with your offer of setting prices on all of the items and allowing you to purchase those items that you wanted and that were at a satisfactory price level. However, this would have entailed a lot of time in listing, undoubtedly some "bargaining and bartering" (which I abhor), and probably some ill will, which I certainly do not want. I am completely aware that I paid too much for some of the items in the collection but feel that others were obtained a good prices, especially in view of today's market and the inflation; thus I will have to rely on this to be balanced off by utilizing the auction route to dispose of the collection. Finally, it would have detracted from the auction and the related promotion, etc. that NASCA will utilize, to have the better and more desireable items removed by "cherry-picking" before the actual auction.

I am hopeful that the free and competitive bidding on the collection in this auction will obtain fair and reasonable prices; at least I will be assurred that I have gotten the best and fairest prices whether I lose or gain money overall by the sale! In fairness to myself and my family in these difficult times I believe I must do it this way.

I hope that you will both obtain what you desire and at prices you are willing to pay at the auction. I also feel quite certain that Dr.Ball and his associates may call on both of you to assist them in some matters in their cataloging efforts.

Respectfully,

Joe (Vacca)

Dear Joe:

Thank you for your letter postmarked 12/9/80.

If you do not get the $20,000 advance, or if you cannot work out a satisfactory arrangement with NASCA, please get back to me.

If they advance you $30,000 then how are they certain that they will realize that much or make a profit? Do they bid against the regular bidders?

After you offered the collection to me without a list and I made the photocopies for you I thought you would give me the opportunity to buy some after I assured you the deposit. NASCA certainly didn't buy the collection.

I abhor "bartering" too, but there would have been none in dealing with me.

Best wishes,

Eric P. Newman

NOTICE.

The "Special Charter" of this Co. does not limit the amount of insurance in favor of relations of the insured, as in some cases of other and other States. See following section of charter:

Sec. 13. Any policy of insurance issued by this Company for the use, benefit or advantage of the wife, widow, children, father or mother of any person whose life may be insured by said corporation, shall not be held or made liable for any debts, contracts or engagements of the person whose life is or may be so insured, and all such insurance in the event of the decease of the person whose life may be so insured, shall be paid to the person or persons beneficially interested therein, to be held by him, her, or them, free and discharged of and from all pre-existing debts, contracts and engagements whatever of the person deceased.

Reasons for insuring in this Co.

1. Its managers, men of known character and integrity, have already placed it beyond suspicion or apprehension. 2. Its risks are well scrutinized by experienced Medical Examiners, and carefully selected. 3. Its investments are of undoubted security. 4. Its accumulations are ample for every contingency. 5. Its great management and rapid growth is a guarantee of the future.
